- By an interview for the Engagement of applicants for Permanent Staff Appointments introduced by the Agency.

No variation of or alteration to these Terms and Conditions shall be valid unless approved by or on behalf of the Agency, the Employment Business and the Client and confirmed in writing.

All information relating to Temporary Workers, Candidates, the Agency and the Employment Business is confidential unless it is in the public domain. All information relating to Temporary Workers and Candidates is provided solely for the purpose of work-finding services to the Client and must not be used for any other purpose or disclosed to any third party. The Client undertakes to comply with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998 in relation to the processing of a Temporary Worker's personal data.

Temporary Workers

1 The Client agrees to pay the Charges as notified to and agreed with the client. The Charges are calculated according to the number of hours worked by the Temporary Worker (to the nearest quarter hour) and comprise the following:

- the Temporary Worker's hourly rate of pay;
- an amount equal to any paid holiday leave to which the Temporary Worker is entitled under the Working Time Regulations and, where applicable, the Agency Workers Regulations and which is accrued during the course of an Assignment;
- any other amounts to which the Temporary Worker is entitled under the Agency Workers Regulations, where applicable;
- Employer's National Insurance contributions (ENRI). Balmoral calculates this for each individual shift and carer/nurse. This process means that the actual ENRI rate is passed through taking the earnings thresholds into account for each shift. This process in many cases results in the client paying less than the headline ENRI rate (rate for 2015/16 is 13.8%). Note: Balmoral's published charges rates do not include ENRI as it would, in practice, be charged up to 13.8% depending on the carer/nurse earnings in any particular week;
- any travel, hotel or other expenses as may have been agreed with the client or, if there is no such agreement, such expenses as are reasonable; and
- the Employment Business' commission, which is calculated as a percentage of the Temporary Worker's hourly rate.

Payment Terms. All invoices are due for payment thirty days after the issue date of the invoice.

2. The Employment Business reserves the right to vary the Charges agreed with the client, by giving written notice to the client:

- in order to comply with any additional liability imposed by statute or other legal requirement or entitlement, including but not limited to the Agency Workers Regulations; and/or
 - if there is any variation in the Relevant Terms and Conditions.
3. No refunds are payable in respect of the Charges of the Employment Business.
 4. The Employment Business reserves the right to charge interest under The Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 and The Late Payment of Commercial Debts Regulations 2002 on invoiced amounts unpaid by the due date at the rate of 8% per annum above the base rate from time to time of the Bank of England from the due date until the date of payment. Further and in addition, the Employment Business will demand compensation for recovery and any further reasonable costs of said recovery to include but not limited to: 1. Duplication of documentation already forwarded in support of a demand for payment (including photocopying at a rate of £0.10p per page and the costs of staff delegated to produce the same); and 2. The fees of any undertaking engaged to recover the debt.
 5. Charges which largely represent wages paid are invoiced weekly and are payable in accordance with the Employment Business's invoice.
 6. The Employment Business is responsible for payment of remuneration to each Temporary Worker and the deduction and payment of all statutory contributions in respect of National Insurance and PAYE and all other appropriate taxes as required by law

 - a. shall determine the manner in which the services rendered by such persons are to be carried out,
 - b. shall be responsible for all acts and omissions of any such person whether wilful, negligent or otherwise,

 8. The Employment Business shall not be liable under any circumstances for any loss, injury, damage or expense whatsoever, suffered or incurred by the Client arising or in any way connected with supply by the Employment Business to the Client of any person or the use by the Client of the services of any person for all or any part of the period of a booking by the Client.
 9. VAT (where applicable) is charged on any fee due.

10. The Client shall immediately notify the Employment Business in the event of the Client either engaging a Temporary Worker introduced or supplied by the Employment Business to the Client or introducing a Temporary Worker to another employer resulting in an Engagement by that employer either before the first Assignment, during the course of an Assignment or within the Relevant Period.

The notification by the Client shall include either payment of a transfer fee calculated in accordance with the Scale of Fees set out in Clauses 15 to 21 of the terms for Permanent Staff set out below or an election by the Client for an extended hire period of to be agreed between the Employment Business and the Client as part of these Terms and Conditions. Where the Employment Business and the Client fail to reach an agreement an extended period of hire will be 12 weeks.

Under Regulation 10 of the Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations (NI) 2005, the extended hire period option only applies when the Candidate the Employment Business has introduced/supplied to the Client is then engaged by the Client directly (temp to perm) or the Candidate is engaged by the Client by another agency (temp to temp).

11. When an applicant introduced by the Employment Business is employed on a temporary basis, all matters relating to his/her future employment with that Client (or Associated Employers) MUST initially be discussed with the Employment Business.
12. Every effort is made by the Employment Business to give satisfaction to the Client by ensuring reasonable standards of skills, integrity and reliability from any person supplied and to provide that person in accordance with booking details. However, no liability will be accepted by the Employment Business for any loss, expense, damages or delay arising from any failure to provide any particular person for all or any part of an Assignment or from the negligence, dishonesty or misconduct of the person supplied. The Client must verify at the time that the person commences to render services for or on behalf of the Client that they can carry out the service required including the operation of any machinery etc. In the event of the services of any person supplied by the Employment Business failing to satisfy the reasonable standards required by the Client, the charge aforesaid shall not be payable by the Client provided that the Client has both dispensed with that persons services immediately upon such dissatisfaction, and has notified the Employment Business of such dismissal not later than four hours from the time that person began to render services to or on behalf of the Client.
13. At the end of each week of the Assignment (or, where the Assignment is for a period of less than one week or is completed before the end of a week, at the end of the Assignment) the Client shall sign the timesheet of the Employment Business verifying the number of hours worked by the Temporary Worker during that period. Signature of the timesheet by the Client constitutes acceptance that the Temporary Worker's services have been provided for the hours indicated on the timesheet and that such services have been satisfactory.
14. Any of the Client, the Employment Business or the Temporary Worker may terminate an Assignment without prior notice and without liability, except in the case of termination by the Client under clause 12, in which case the Client shall be liable for any charges where the Client has not complied with the proviso in the last sentence of clause 12.

Permanent Staff

15. The Client will notify the Agency immediately a Candidate, introduced by the Agency, is engaged and pay the fee due in accordance with Clause 15 hereof within 7 days of the receipt of the invoice. By agreeing to engage or make use of a Candidate the Client will be liable for the appropriate introduction fee.
16. The fee payable by the Client for the introduction of a Candidate resulting in an Engagement is based upon the commencing staff grading pay structure, as agreed to be paid by the Client to the Candidate applicant engaged in accordance with the Scale of Fees set out below. Clause 10 refers to the fees applicable to the Engagement of a Temporary Worker to the Client's permanent staff. If the Client fails to pay the Agency's invoice within 30 days, the Standard Scale of Refunds shall no longer apply.
18. If the Client or a member of the Client's staff refers a Candidate introduced by the Agency to some other person or body and that other person or body engages the Candidate in any capacity whether temporary, permanent or self employed, the Client will be liable for an introduction fee in accordance with the Scale of Fees set out in the Agency's Terms and Conditions of Business for the supply of Nursing Staff and Care Assistants at the date of notification or discovery by the Agency if not notified.
19. Should the Client engage the services of an Agency Candidate applicant in any capacity after an initial introduction by the Agency, be it on a permanent or temporary basis, through a direct or indirect approach, or indeed through the Candidate applicant approaching the Client through whatever method, then a fee (in accordance with the Scale of Fees set out below) is payable to the Agency.
20. The Agency endeavours to ensure the suitability of any Candidate applicant introduced to the Client but does not warrant his or her suitability of any applicant and shall take up any references provided by a Candidate.
